

PALASH RANJAN GUPTA
Head, International Arbitration & India Desk

Education

BA LLB, Honours, National Law School of India, 2001.
Juris Doctor, Boston College Law School, 2008.

Bar Qualifications

Palash is qualified to practice law in India and in the United States (Massachusetts).

Language Proficiency

He speaks English, Bengali, Hindi and Spanish.

Areas of Expertise

Palash is dual-qualified in India and the USA (Massachusetts) and is primarily a disputes practitioner with expertise in a wide range of corporate and commercial matters and in relation to litigation and arbitration proceedings. He has developed particular expertise in negotiating, reviewing and drafting a wide variety of commercial contracts, providing legal and business-related advice to in-house teams and personally and in conjunction with external counsel handling complex disputes before various judicial fora and arbitration panels internationally.

Palash has worked extensively at law firms in India and the United States. His clients have included large corporations, funds, banks, venture capitalists, family businesses and high net worth individuals. Additionally, his two stints as in-house counsel has given him significant experience in working with and advising large businesses on a wide variety of regulatory and compliance matters. Palash has experience in India, the United States and in several jurisdictions in Asia across a variety of sectors including telecom, FMCG, technology, real estate, health care and financial services.

Prior to joining Collyer Law LLC, Palash was General Counsel at Elevar Equity, a private equity firm with a little over $175 million assets under management; Partner at Haresh Jagtiani and Associates; and an associate at S&R Associates, Delhi and Dwyer & Collora, Boston. Palash started his career and spent several years as Legal Manager for Hindustan Unilever in Mumbai.